LOST ISLANDS OF IRELAND

AND RAIL JOURNEYS OF BRITAIN

CRUISE

YOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1 Wednesday, 8 July 2026

Depart Australia

Today we depart Australia on our overnight flights to Manchester.

DAY 2 Thursday, 9 July 2026

York, England

We arrive into Manchester today and on arrival are met by our private coach and transferred to York, where we spend the next three nights.

DAY 3 Friday, 10 July 2026

York

This morning we enjoy a sightseeing tour of York with a local guide. During the tour we see York Minster, containing the largest selection of medieval stained glass in Britain. We walk through the Shambles, a row of ancient houses with second stories leaning over the street and have a boat ride on the River Ouse. After lunch, we will visit the National Railway Museum with a collection that has been built up over the past 80 years. It has over 100 locomotives and nearly 200 other items of rolling stock, telling the story of the railway from the early 19th century to today. This evening we enjoy a Welcome Dinner.

DAY 4 Saturday, 11 July 2026

York

This morning we travel north to Pickering, to travel on the North Yorkshire Moors Railway. With a history dating back to 1835, the North Yorkshire Moors Railway is England's most popular heritage steam railway. The 18-mile (29-kilometer) route winds through the North York Moors National Park, stopping at historic railway stations and affording magnificent views of the rugged moorlands. There will be free time in Whitby, before boarding the train back to Pickering.

DAY 5 Sunday, 12 July 2026

Caernarfon, Wales

Today we travel to Caernarfon. On arrival, we enjoy a sightseeing tour to Caernarfon Castle. Built by Edward I at the entrance of the Menai Strait, the castle was the linchpin in a series of English fortifications built in the 13th century. Stroll the battlements atop the gray stone walls, climb the towers, and see the courtyard where King Charles was invested as Prince of Wales in 1969. We check into our hotel late afternoon.

DAY 6 Monday, 13 July 2026

Caernarfon

A highlight of the tour! This morning we travel to Llanberis, to ride on the Snowdon Mountain Railway. Soon after the train leaves Llanberis station, the track crosses the first of two viaducts across the Afon Hwch river and a wonderful view of the waterfall plunging into the gorge below can be seen. As the train emerges onto open ground, we will have a first glimpse of the peak of Snowdon. The train starts climbing before one of the world's great panoramas is finally revealed at the summit of Snowdon. This afternoon we visit Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwillllantysiliogogoch, the Welsh town with the longest name in the world.

DAY 7 Tuesday, 14 July 2026

Caernarfon

Today we travel on the Welsh Highland Railway, which runs through some of the most stunning scenery in Britain. Starting in Caernarfon, the route climbs on the old standard gauge track-bed to the old junction with the original WHR at Dinas. Rejoining the track-bed of the original WHR, the line climbs into the heart of the Snowdonia Mountains, travelling past lakes, then down through a forest and a spectacular rocky gorge to the sea at Porthmadog, having crossed Snowdonia from sea to sea in the course of its 25 miles.

DAY 8 Wednesday, 15 July 2026

Liverpool, England

This morning we travel to the port city of Liverpool, the capital city in the county of Lancashire, a city full of culture, excitement and important maritime history, and famous for its Mersey waterfront. After lunch, we will make our way down to the waterfront and take a ferry ride across the River Mersey, made famous by Jerry & The Pacemakers. We then check into our hotel.

DAY 9 Thursday, 16 July 2026

Liverpool

Liverpool is also known throughout the world for being the home of The Beatles, at the time when the Mersey Beat was born. On our sightseeing tour we will see Matthew Street, the home of the Cavern Club where The Beatles played. This afternoon we will visit The Beatles Story Museum. Experience Beatlemania first-hand with immersive recreations of key locations in the band's career and see fascinating pieces of original authentic memorabilia.

FRED OLSEN BOLETTE

 Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines

Fred Olsen's flagship vessel proudly bears the name of Fred. Olsen's Great Grandmother, Bolette. Exuding classic, elegant style, and featuring spacious and comfortable public areas, with just 690 cabins, our flagship leads our fleet of smaller ships by example. Bolette provides our guests with plenty of space to relax within the bars, lounges, theatres and wide open deck spaces. In the Observatory, you'll be able to enjoy one of our Signature Experiences of scenic cruising, through the large panoramic windows – the perfect accompaniment to the commentary you'll receive as you learn more about the waterways and fjords you'll be sailing along. The Auditorium hosts cooking demonstrations, where you'll see our talented chefs create our Treats of the Region dishes, and have the chance to sample them too. Up on deck eight, you'll find the Lido Bar and swimming pool. The retractable roof means you can enjoy a swim all year round, wherever you're cruising.

WHAT TO WEAR

Dress cruise casual anytime during the day, in the buffet and in most specialty restaurants. For women, it includes summer and casual dresses, skirts, regular or capri pants, shorts, jeans and tops. Khakis, jeans, shorts and casual shirts are fine for men. Swimwear is acceptable at the buffet and out-door restaurant, but a shirt or a cover-up and footwear are required. Dress smart casual in our more upscale specialty restaurants. For women, it includes slacks or jeans, dresses, skirts and tops. For men, it's jeans or slacks with a collared shirt and closed-toed shoes.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT COMING ALONE

About a third of people on the cruise travel alone. We will match people in twin-share cabins when available, saving you the single supplement. You won't be left alone, the Travelrite Tour Manager will be there to guide you. There will be group activities almost every day.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THE SENIOR CRUISE

The cruise is fully escorted and will be a great fun holiday with plenty of activities. Each evening you will dine with the group at our reserved tables. You will meet a fun group of people and have a fabulous time.

DAY 10 Friday, 17 July 2026

Embarkation

A free morning for last-minute sightseeing or shopping. At midday, we are transferred to the cruise terminal to embark the Bolette. Be up on deck as she slips her moorings and we begin our Emerald Isle adventure!

DAY 11 Saturday, 18 July 2026

Scenic Cruising

A day of scenic cruising. Fingal's Cave is an iconic structure comprised of basalt rock, renowned for its distinctive symmetrical columns that soar out of the ocean. Bac Mòr, also known as Dutchman's Cap due to its unique mushroom-like shape, is one of the most iconic of the Scottish Treshnish Isles. This afternoon, join your fellow travellers for a fun game of Trivia! There will be prizes for the winners.

DAY 12 Sunday, 19 July 2026

Belfast, Northern Ireland

This morning we arrive at Belfast, the seat of Parliament (called Stormont) and capital of Northern Ireland. We travel along part of the beautiful coastal road to take in the stunning views on our way to the Giant's Causeway to see the remarkable rock formations. The lunar landscape of the Giant's Causeway is a World Heritage site where the basalt columns packed tightly together have made the Giant's Causeway the subject of numerous legends. We then stop at the Titanic Dry Dock where the famous liner was built and visit the famous Titanic Museum. We return to the city of Belfast for a brief sightseeing tour where we will see City Hall, the Grand Opera House, and Albert Memorial Clock.

DAY 13 Monday, 20 July 2026

Dublin, Ireland

Today we arrive at Dublin, the capital of the Republic of Ireland and well known as being a place of friendliness and 'craic', a city well over 1000 years old. We will have a sightseeing tour of the city which includes visits to St. Patrick's Cathedral and Trinity College where we see the famous Book of Kells. We see the famous Ha'penny Bridge, the GPO in O'Connell Street, St Stephen's Green, and Grafton Street.

DAY 14 Tuesday, 21 July 2026

Scenic Cruising

A day of scenic cruising. Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way is renowned for the beauty of its rugged coast, spectacular cliffs and natural wonders. The 45 kilometre-long Lough Swilly slices between the peninsulas of Inishowen and Fanad in County Donegal. The hidden gem of Arranmore offers views of unspoiled landscapes, sandy beaches, dramatic sea caves, and craggy cliffs, making it the perfect setting for many species of bird life, including fulmars, shags, and seals, while the clear waters are home to dolphins, seals, and basking sharks. This afternoon, join your fellow travellers for a fun game of Bingo! There will be prizes for the winners.

DAY 15 Wednesday, 22 July 2026

Killybegs, Ireland

Killybegs is a naturally sheltered deep-water harbor located along the rugged and dramatic northwest coast of Ireland's remote County Donegal. Towering hills rise from the cliffs and coves, which have been carved by the relentless forces of the Atlantic. We travel along part of the Wild Atlantic Way to Donegal Town. Enjoy scenic views of Donegal Bay and the charming village of Mountcharles. We then explore Donegal Town's rich history, including Donegal Castle, The Diamond, and scenic river views.

DAY 16 Thursday, 23 July 2026

Arran Islands and Galway, Ireland

After arrival into the city of Galway we take a ferry over to Inis Mór, the largest of the Aran Islands. Gaelic is still spoken here. We tour the island and see the stone forts and traditional way of life. See the ancient farms and their traditional stone walls, the beaches and coves and much more. We then return to Galway, a vibrant city where history meets modern charm. We will enjoy a sightseeing tour and see amongst other areas, Eyre Square and the stunning architecture of Galway Cathedral.

DAY 17 Friday, 24 July 2026

Scenic Cruising of the Cliffs of Moher

A day of scenic cruising. The Cliffs of Moher stand majestically between the distinctive landscape of the Burren on one side and the vast Wild Atlantic Ocean on the other. Stretching nearly 8 miles along County Clare's coastline, these cliffs were shaped over 320 million years ago and are now part of the Burren and Cliffs of Moher UNESCO Global Geopark. This afternoon, join your fellow travellers for a fun game of Scattergories! There will be prizes for the winners.

DAY 18 Saturday, 25 July 2026

Disembark/Departure

We arrive back into Liverpool this morning. After disembarking the ship, we are transferred to Manchester Airport for flights back to Australia.

DAY 19 Sunday, 26 July 2026

Arrive Australia

Tour members arrive in Australia and arrangement conclude.
