Diamond Princess

The rhythm of each day spent aboard Diamond Princess depends on individual vacation style, but one thing's for certain – activity options abound. Choose from four separate swimming pools for a refreshing daily dip or spend the day immersed in the library and writing room. Soothing body treatments are on the menu at the serene, Asian-themed Lotus Spa, which also includes a gorgeous terrace area and a fully equipped fitness centre. With frequently changing menus, multiple main dining rooms mean passengers can choose mealtimes, companions, and cuisine. Additional convenient dining options include 24-hour buffets and room service, plus the poolside pizzeria, hamburger grill, and ice cream bar. After sunset, the lights keep shining with original Broadway and Las Vegas productions in the spacious theatre and plenty of room for stargazing on the balcony of the Skywalkers disco and lounge. A voyage on the Diamond Princess is an exceptional experience to be remembered.

Clothing onboard

Princess Cruises maintains two main evening dress codes: the most common is smart casual, which includes trousers, shirts, blouses, dresses, and skirts, similar to a nice restaurant. On select evenings, there are formal nights for those who wish to dress up in evening gowns, cocktail dresses, or suits, though a formal dress code is not mandatory and will vary depending on the specific venue or event. During the day, dress is generally casual, though swimwear and robes are not permitted in dining rooms.
